the position. By that time it is probable that the required number of states will have railfied the constitutional applicational in which event there will be no question of a woman's eighbility to hold eigher a city or county office in Tennance.

The constitutionality of the Memphis court itself has been questioned recently and it is certain that the act must be amended by the next legislature. When the amendment is drawn it will be so framed that either a man or woman may hold the effice, and the court will probably be remained and will be given jurisdiction only within the city.

Mrs. Kelley found woman judges in moveral cities. Judge Jean Norris, in New York and Judge Katheryn Selers. In Washington Site sai during one measion with Judge Victor T. arnold in Chicago.

Mother Who Shot Girl Held Insane

NEW YORK, March 25.—Mrs. Emily Pavre, who shot and killed her I2-year-eld daughter here Feb. 7, has been ad-judged insane and committed to Mat-tewar hospital for the criminal insane,

Mrs. Favre came here a year ago from Chatham, Ontario, ambitious to become a dancer, evidence prosented the commission disclosed. She had inherited a large sum of money from her father, the commission reported, but at the time she killed her daughter she was in straightened circumstances. She face commission to be intended to told the commission she intended it commit suicide after killing her daugh-ter but her mind 'became a blank'. For two days and nights after the shooting, Mrs. Favre slept beside the body of her daughter.
